LOCAL MATTERS.

THE RADICAL CONVENTION.

SECOND AND LAST DAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

THE WHOLE TICKET NOMINATED.

Brogden Would Electrify his Audience, but the Thing Could not be Done.

THE CONVENTION ADJOURNS.

The Convention met at 10 o'clock.
S. F. Phillips, President, in the chair.

Under the call for unfinished business the tail end of yesterday's resolutions in regard to the sense of this Convention that Abbott should be seated at once, was taken up.

R. C. Badger, the father of the resolutions, asked that Williamson's motion, which tabled them, be withdrawn in order that he might make an explanation.

Williamson rose and claimed the floor on question of privilege. Said he opposed the resolutions, not from any ill will to Abbott, but for the damaging effect that their passage would have upon the party in the coming campaign.
He then branched off on the general merits of the resolutions, when the President rapped him down.

Mr. Badger attempted to explain his resolutions, which he said had been misunderstood by the Convention, when Williamson, again got the floor, and moved the reference of the resolutions to the Committee on Resolutions. Adopted.

Henderson, of Davidson, moved that no member be permitted to speak more than once on any question and then not to occupy more than five minutes.

An Edgecombe white man, moved that the Convention go into an election for a candidate for Lieut. Governor, adopted.

After the various nominations had been made the roll of the counties were called and the vote on the 1st ballot stood as follows:

C. H. Brogden, 42; A. S. Seymour, 13; J. B. Ressler, 5; C. L.
Harris, 25; R. L. Patterson, 16; 16; G. W. Price, col, 12; James H. Harris, 1; necessary to choose 54.

consequently no election; upon the second ballot Curtis H. Brogden received a majority and was declared duly elected. In accordance with the fashion he came forward on the stage to accept the nomination. In this speech, was enacted the force of the day's proceedings. He commenced in a high pitched voice with the regular sing-song of an old fashioned itinerant camp-meeting preacher; the undulations of his voice, excepting the famous er, being exactly the same. He contended his speech, relating all the incidents of his life from the time he left the plow handle.

It was soon apparent that his audience was wearing out, but being their newly elected Lieut. Governor, they were afraid to say anything. Finally a large double jointed "darkey" blacksmith from Orange, raised from his seat and said, "Mr. cheerman, I move dat de gemmen wher is speaking retire." Unconcerted, the Lieutenant Governor that is to be, kept on.

Next a friend approached him on the stand and whispered to him that he was worrying his audience, and must desist, but Brogden was yet unable to see it, but raised his voice and essayed to keep on. At this juncture the audience "goin clean out" and an attempt was made to drown him out by tremendous cheering and applause but had no effect. This old man misconstrued the applause, which was intended to drown out, raised his voice a key note higher and thus continued to harass the Convention, until he was almost dragged off the stage. After the nomination of Brogden, Col. T. L. Hargrove, of Granville, was nominated for Attorney General and unanimously elected by acclamation. He too followed the style, but having witnessed the manner in which his predecessor had disgusted the audience made only a few remarks, and retired.

T. F. Lee, of Wake, named the appointment of a Committee of one from each Congressional District to recommend four persons and four alternates to represent the State at large in the Philadelphia Convention, adopted.

Price, col'd, of Wilmington, moved that the Convention now go into election of a candidate for Secretary of State, adopted.

The roll of the counties was called, resulting in no election on first ballot.
Vote stood as follows: W. H. How-ton, 30; Lottin, 23; Dr. Menninger 10; T. M.argo, 15; Mabson, col'd, 9; Thomas, of Franklin, 10; Dr. Pritchard of Mecklenburg, 5; Benjamin, of Wilmington, 1.

On the second ballot Dr. W. H. How-ton received a majority of all the votes and was duly declared the candidate. He came forward (of course) and accepted the nomination, in a few brief remarks in which he promised faithfulness to the party, said something about Grant and retired.

A colored Craven delegate placed in nomination David A. Jenkins, of Gaston, for Treasurer, Mabson colored of New Hanover, moved as an amendment that the election be by acclamation.

Harris, James H. col'd said it was no amendment but a substitute, here a man in the rear of the Hall moved an adjournment.

Mabson, excitedly declared this move for an adjournment was offered by an enemy to Jenkins, and the party here commenced another scene of confusion and excitement that beggars description. A dozen or more were speaking at one time. The President drummed on the floor with his big hickory, and with the aid of the Marshal and Sergeant at arms order was restored. The motion for an adjournment was voted down and the election for State Treasurer commenced.

The following names were placed in nomination: D. A. Jenkins Gaston; S.
H. Wiley, Rowan; Jno. Watts, Martin; Owen H. Burney, New Hanover; John Norfleet, Edgecombe.

D. A. Jenkins, the present incumbent, was elected on the first ballot; came forward, said his say—about Ku Klux Democracy—Grant and his "party of progress," after which he gracefully returned to enjoy his triumph.

A Stokes county delegate, moved that a committee of two from each Congressional District be appointed to recommend to the convention the names of electors for the State at large.

Another scene of general confusion occurred on the nomination of candidates for Auditor, in the midst of which the convention managed to adjourn for dinner.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

At 3:30 o'clock the meeting re-assembled.

Some of the delegates had "struck for their homes, their firesides and their little ones," and consequently the attendance was somewhat smaller.

A slight confusion apparent—several parties endeavored to advocate the merits of their friends, for the office of State Auditor, but they were in each case gagged by cries of "object 1!" "object 2!" Geo. Arnold, colored, from Caswell, still insisted he should have one of the Chairmen of the Convention, the privilege, and yet the fiery Arnold would be heard—the house would not however, hear him. (Better luck next time, Arnold—he should have a little time to blow off his gas.)

The voting for the nomination of State Auditor was then proceeded with.

Arnold finally got in his word—in-casting the vote of Caswell he said the delegation voted for Albright, because he was a "fire-tried republican." He took his seat, well contented with his say. A very black man from Granville demanded the floor on the merits of his favorite, but he could not obtain permission to do so.

Chair announced Committee to recommend Electors for the State at large, and the said committee retired.
No election for Auditor on first ballot, and the roll of counties was again called. Linsey withdrew his name from the contest, and hoped his friends would vote for Mabson.

Some confusion being apparent, the Chair called for the Sergeant-at-Arms.
The friends of the candidates writ-drew all names except Hubs and Riley, who had an exciting race. The result proved for Riley 60, Hubbs 40. Riley having received a majority, he was declared elected and trotted out. He returned his thanks, &c., for the honor conferred. Promised to work well in harness, and to perform his duty provided he is elected.

The Committee appointed to recommend Electors for the State at large, reported the names—Thomas Settle, and Marcus Erwin.

Assistant electors, as canvassers, were recommended one from each Congressional District.

Arnold, the colored delegate from Caswell, offered a series of resolutions concerning the rights of all citizens, equality before the law, &c., &c. Of course the resolution was adopted, as due difference was paid to all motions, &c., offered by "de color."

Judge Thomas Settle, of Peru via Rockingham, came forward on the stand and nominated for Superintendent of Public Instruction, Rev. Jas. R. Roper, of Franklin county, acting as Marshal of the day, with his position in the front aisle, so inspired with the appearance of the distinguished Peruvian on the stage, exclaimed in the fulness of his heart, "I seconds the motion, and move that he be elected by proclamation." Loud shouts of laughter and applause, even by the negroes, and the exposure of the Marshall's ignorance was the cause of at least five minutes suspension of business.

The Marshall's motion was carried, and the aged political parson was elected by acclamation. After his election, he followed the example of his predecessors, came to the front, promised to work and elect the ticket. He knew where to go, where to strike, what to say, and what to do, and with the aid of "his blessed Redeemer" he would come out ahead with the ticket. The old man retired amidst the deafening applause of his new found friends. Our same old shouting, grey-headed gentle, could not resist this politico sermon, and re-organized his camp meeting under the name of the President, much to the annoyance of this dignified personage. The hand shaking with the negroes was dispensed with.

The following resolution was offered by Gen. Rufus Barringer, the same in substance that was referred to a Committee during the morning session:

Resolved, That the Republicans of North Carolina desire that the law be impartially carried out in the case of Hon. J. C. Abbott, now pending in the Senate of the United States, and if it should be found that he is legally entitled to the seat, it would not only be gratifying to them, but in their opinion would best subserve the public interest of the State and be in accordance with the wishes of a majority of the people, that he be seated, and such result would be a merited rebuke to the spirit of contempt and defiance of the national Constitution manifested by a majority of the members of the last legislature.

The General advocated the passage of the resolution. He was followed by the colored preacher, Hood, who had much to say about Abbott's claims on the party, that he was the representative of the party in the State, and as such the U. S. Congress should seat him. That the Legislature that elected Ransom was Democratic, and therefore unconstitutional, and as Abbott was elected by the only voters (Republicans) that Congress should recognize, they ought at once to answer the demand of this body to seat him. (While we do not use his language, this was positively the substance of his remarks.) He was warmly applauded, and huzzed by the house. Only a few honest white men exhibited any opposition to these extravagant remarks. Maj. Wm. A.
Smith, in order to save the character of the party before these resolutions could be passed, moved an adjournment sine die. He hissed down, principally by the colored delegates, and afterwards, when he left the Hall, the delegate Arnold said he had gone to join his friends the Democrats, or words to that effect.

Jeems Harris made a speech in favor of the Abbott resolutions. He denounced, in unmeasured terms, the Legislature that elected Ransom to the U.
S. Senate, whom he said was a tool to do their dirty work; that the Legislature was composed of midnight murderers and assassins—ku-klux, &c.
He expected no more than such language from such a source and while we were prepared to sit there quietly as a reporter and hear it, yet we regarded with sympathy, many of our white friends connected with the party, who were compelled to force a smile of approbation, and join their applause with the men to whom they had sold themselves, for a price. We must confess that we were surprised that there were no more men, like Major Smith, who were independent enough, then and there, to leave the hall in disgust. We believe that others—many others, whose self-respect and esteem will force them from this mongrel crew, but yesterday evening, at Metropolitan Hall, was the time and place for men that were men, to rise and renounce forever the evil and errors they had fallen into.

After the passage of the resolutions, Abbott appeared on the stage and thanked the Convention for the passage of the same. Said he could now go back to Washington city and carry the expressed wishes of North Carolina to the United States Senate, and be deprived of the past fourteen months by a product of North Carolina Democracy. After Abbott's speech, a delegate from Chatham, nominated Silas Burns, of Chatham for Superintendent of Public Works—elected by acclamation.

The following resolutions were offered by a Green county delegate and unanimously received:

Resolved, That W. W. Holden deserves from the Republican party of North Carolina, the kindest affection and deepest gratitude for his manful and hardy defence of them in 1869-70 from the assaults of the ku-klux Democracy; for his universal and consistent defence of the poor and humble when he was Governor, and his faithful and ceaseless advocacy of Republican principles when he was with us, and now that he is a martyr in exile at Washington, Resolved, That we endorse him in the past and shall ever cherish our love for him in the future, and we have confident hope and trust that the time is near when he shall return to his native State again to battle for the Union, for the equality before the law and for progressive principles of Republicanism.

A resolution in regard to the State, county and township organizations was adopted.

A Resolution of thanks to the officers was passed.

Delegates appointed to the Philadelphia Convention.

After the passage of a few more unimportant resolutions, and after speculating in which one or two new converts participated, the Convention adjourned sine die.

We call attention to the card of that honest Republican, Maj. W. A. Smith, protesting against the absurd claims of Gen. Abbott to the Senatorship. The letter does great credit to Maj. Smith.

We shall have more to say of this matter hereafter.

Maj. Smith was Chairman of the Johnson delegations and cast the vote of that county for Gov. Caldwell.

[For the Daily News,
A CARD.

I desire to enter my solemn protest against the action of the Republican State Convention in relation to the resolutions introduced in that body touching the question of the United States Senatorship.

When the resolutions were first introduced on yesterday, I bitterly opposed them for the reason that they, in effect, endorsed the claims of Gen. Joseph C.
Abbott for the Senatorship, and instructed the United States Senate to admit him. When the resolutions came up to-day for discussion in the Convention, the gag-law was applied, and the members who opposed them were defied to the deafening shouts of the multitude, so that all discussion on the merits of the resolutions was shamefully cut off.

I take this method, first, of protesting against the discourteous conduct of the Convention in refusing to hear the opponents of the resolutions, and secondly, of protesting against the resolutions themselves, as being un-American, un-Republican, totally at war with every principle of true Republican government. I am clearly of opinion that Gen.
Abbott is not entitled to the seat, but that Gen. Matt W. Ransom is. At the time of the election of Gov. Vance, the Democrats having nearly two-thirds majority, the vote for Abbott was considered by the Republicans as simply a complimentary one, as no one dreamed at that time, that he stood the ghost of a chance of an election. Wishing to compliment a personal friend, I threw my vote away on him.

If this question of Senatorship was left to a majority of the best and most intelligent Republicans of the State, (which of course would exclude the carpet-bag clique, I am satisfied that their sense of justice, decency and propriety would award the seat to General Ransom in preference to Gen. Abbott.
Respectfully,

Wm. A. SMITH.

Raleigh, April 18th, 1872.

OXFORD ITEMS.—Our Oxford correspondent, under date of yesterday, gives us the following items:

Charades and Feast.—A series of Charades will be acted at the Casino Hall on Tuesday evening, (it being Court week), April 23rd, under the supervision of Mrs. T. B. Venable and Miss Margaret C. Taylor. At the conclusion of the charades a feast, gotten up under the direction of Mrs. Sarah A. Elliott, will be served in the spacious dining-room of the Osborn House. The proceeds arising from both of these sources will be appropriated for repairing and refurbishing the Episcopal parsonage. We trust that the laudable purpose these ladies and their assistants have in view will meet with eminent success.

Harvest for old Granville!—We are informed by a prominent gentleman from Richmond, who is engaged in the tobacco commission business in that city, that Granville county raises tobacco of finer quality than is grown elsewhere, either in North Carolina or Virginia. Tobacco dealers from Virginia have been purchasing a number of crops in different parts of the county.

We understand Capt. T. B. Lyon sold to one of these dealers, a crop at $47.00 per 100 pounds, all round, it being a crop Capt. L. had recently purchased of one of his neighbors.

Building and Loan Association.—The next regular meeting of the People's Building and Loan Association will take place on Friday night, the 19th inst. It is particularly desired that a large number of the members be present. Mr. John W. Hays will explain some features in connection with the working of the association which will most probably be very instructive to those who have not given the subject much attention. The Board of Directors will meet on Monday night, April the 22nd.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.—At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Raleigh & Gaston R. R., held in Raleigh on April 17th, 1872, the following resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, Since the last meeting of this Board a sudden death has deprived the Company of an old and highly esteemed officer.

Resolved, That in the death of Capt.
Jephtha Horton, the Road has lost a long tried and faithful servant who in various capacities has served the Road for over a quarter of a century with the greatest fidelity, and who during that time has acquired and has ever maintained an unspotted reputation for probity and fidelity worthy of all imitation.

Resolved, That as a testimonial of the long services and high character of the deceased and the high estimation in which he was held, these resolutions shall be spread upon our minutes.

Resolved, That a copy of these Resolutions be sent to the bereaved widow and family of the deceased, and that we tender to them our sincere sympathies in their deep affliction.

Resolved, That a copy of the Resolutions be sent to Raleigh News and Raleigh Sentinel, with request to publish.

ARRIVAL OF FREIGHTS.—The following freight arrived at the Raleigh and Gaston Depot yesterday:

One lot guano, for A. G. Lee & Co.; 1 lot guano, for L. H. Adams; 1 lot of guano, for G. H. Wilder & Co., 1 lot of guano, for Wilder & Williams; 1 lot of merchandise, for W. C. Stronach & Co.; 9 do. do., for Marcom & Alford;

STATE CONVENTION.

The State Convention of the Democratic-Conservative Party of North Carolina will meet at Greensboro on Wednesday, the first day of May next.

THE DEATH-WARRANT OF RADICALISM.

The nomination of Gov. Caldwell for Governor, by the Radical State Convention on Wednesday, is in keeping with the character of that party whose whole career has been characterized by a reckless disregard of law, honesty and the Constitution.

The endorsement of Caldwell's course, expressly by a resolution of the Convention and implicitly by his nomination, signs the death warrant of Radicalism in North Carolina; and after the first Thursday in August next, that party will be known only in name in this State—it will be swept out of public view and its loathsome existence blotted out forever.

As we said yesterday, Gov. Caldwell's nomination is the best that could have been made for our party, but the worst for the Radicals.

If the Conservatives, who have heretofore stayed away from the polls, will only put forth half their strength, we will achieve such a victory as will cheer the hearts of patriots in every State in the Union and tell with powerful effect upon the Presidential election.

By faithful, earnest, untiring work, we can carry North Carolina against any Radical nominee that the party might have selected. By unity of action and determined effort on our part, either Settle or Dockery would have been badly beaten. As for Caldwell, it will be no race at all, if the proper policy be pursued. We are as confident of victory as that tomorrow's sun will rise, if the people who are opposed to Radicalism will come out and vote on the day of election.

Will they do it? Will they stand idly by, and allow the election to go by default? Or will they buckle on their armor and go forth in the cause of purity, of honesty and of the Constitution, determined to throttle the monster Radicalism that tramples down the rights of the people and every safe-guard of Constitutional liberty?

North Carolinians! arouse from your inactivity! Awake from the lethargic slumber that has stolen upon you! Arise in your majestic might, and hurl your political oppressors and plunderers to the earth! It is your power if you will only strive to win.

You have been grievously wronged! Your treasure has been stolen. Your interests have been sacrificed. Your high offices disgraced by incompetency, venality and shamelessness. The character of your State has been tarnished. Your dearest rights have been ruthlessly trampled under foot. The chief monument of regulated liberty and the last hope of the oppressed—the great writ of right—no longer throws theegis of its protecting power around the humblest citizen of the land. Usurpation, cruel, heartless, shameless usurpation, has disgraced the State and National governments. Your prosperity has been withered. Your all has been squandered, and North Carolina stands to-day a mere caricature of her former greatness, honor and pride!

All these evils have been entailed upon us by the crimes and corruptions of the Radical party.

Can any true son of North Carolina look upon the dark and melancholy scene, and not resolve in his heart that he will never cease his efforts until a reformation is brought about?

Not North Carolina claims the services of every honest citizen in the State. Every man opposed to Radicalism who fails to vote in the next election will have a fearful responsibility to answer for. "Indifference is crime—and apathy treason" in such a contest as the one before us.

We have a weak opponent to fight against. Caldwell's Administration has been a series of errors, violations of law and partisan bigotry. That Administration has been a mockery and a shame. It has called down upon his head the indignation denunciation of the public voice. It has been a failure—a most disgraceful and damning failure.

We repeat, the nomination of Caldwell signs the death warrant of Radicalism in North Carolina.

Friends of law, and liberty, and the Constitution! let us press forward in the struggle!

Let us take courage from the weakness of our opponent. Let us rally our forces in every County. Let us organize in every township in the State. Let us present an unbroken phalanx—AND VICTORY IS OURS!

WE WILL HAVE BUT TO PUT FORTH OUR STRENGTH, AND THE DAY IS WON!

North Carolinians! will you not respond? Will you not come up to the full measure of your duty? Will you not for once be true to yourselves, your families, and your State? Will you not rally in this campaign, under that banner on whose folds are inscribed the words, DOWN WITH RADICALISM? Will you not take your places promptly and at once in the ranks of those who oppose the enemies of your prosperity and your highest interests?

WILL THEY DO IT?

The eyes of the whole Conservative element of the United States are turned to the grand meeting of the Liberal Republicans, which convenes in Cincinnati on the 1st of May. He, indeed, has been but a casual observer of recent events, who does not acknowledge the importance and magnitude of this movement.

The avowed object of the Liberal leaders is to secure purity in the government, to correct abuses in the civil service, and to stop Executive encroachments on the rights of the people. Retrenchment, economy, honesty in officials, and universal amnesty may be laid down as among the chief planks of their platform.

The ball has been fairly set in motion against the Administration. The movement has assumed such formidable and alarming proportions that it is carrying terror into the ranks of Grant's followers who affect an unconcern that is really amusing.

If the Cincinnati Convention commit no errors, but conduct its labors in such a manner as to unite every element of opposition to Grant, then the fact is undisputable that the new party will prove a grand success, and will inaugurate a new era in National affairs.

Will the Liberal leaders act with prudence and discretion at Cincinnati? We believe they will.

At all events, it is essential that we keep up a thorough and effective organization of the Democratic forces—so as to be prepared to pursue such a line of action as the emergencies may demand.

THE TROUBLE IN PENNSYLVANIA.

The Radicals are in a stew in Pennsylvania. They have recently nominated as their candidate for Governor, a man by the name of Hartranft, who is very odious to a large number of his party friends, many of whom refuse to support him. There is not only great dissatisfaction with the nominee, but open repudiation of his claims for the position. Even the redoubtable John W. Forney denounces Hartranft, and declares the Republican party has been sold out.

Hartranft's name is connected with the great Evans fraud in Pennsylvania. He was also the hanger-on of the unfortunate Mrs. Suratt, whom many believe to have been murdered. These are not the only charges against the Radical nominee. Forney thinks the defeat of Hartranft inevitable, unless the opposition to him is checked.

The Liberal Republican movement is also giving the Pennsylvania Radicals much trouble. Senator A. K. McClure has written to Cincinnati, and engaged accommodations for one hundred Liberal Republicans for the 1st of May. The "Old Keystone State," like New York, is now booked against Grant by a large majority. There is every prospect of an anti Radical victory in that State.

FOR COLORADO.

We understand that John B. Hussey, Esq., a talented and prominent lawyer of Newton, Catawba county, is engaged in getting up a colony of immigrants in his part of the State, for Colorado. Mr. Hussey is an influential and popular young man, and has taken the present move at the urgent solicitations of a number of the citizens of Catawba and the adjoining counties, who have become dissatisfied with the condition of affairs in this State, and think they can find a better country. We regret to lose our good citizens—especially such men as those in Catawba.

We do not know whether Mr. Hussey himself, has decided to take up his abode in the distant West or not. We hope he will not leave the old North State at this time. Wait until after the election. Help us to bury Radicalism next August, and perhaps you will reconsider your purpose to emigrate.

JNO. A. WOMACK, ESQ.

This gentleman was recently recommended by a public meeting at Lenoir, for Secretary of State. By an error, the proceedings stated that he was recommended for "Auditor of the State."

A correspondent of the Sentinel last week strongly urged the claims of Mr. Womack for Secretary of State.

Mr. Womack served the people of Chatham acceptably and faithfully as a member of the last Legislature. He is esteemed wherever he is known as an honest, high-toned gentleman, and possesses great popularity in Chatham.

The Pacific coast has produced a billion and a quarter of bullion since its discovery in 1849.

PREDICTIONS VERIFIED.

In Saturday's issue of the News, we gave it as our opinion that the following would be the Radical State ticket: Caldwell for Governor, Brogden for Lieutenant Governor, and Hargrove for Attorney General. This prediction has been verified to the letter.

In the same issue, we gave it as a rumor that C. C. Pool would resign his Judgeship, and if one John W. Albertson did not get the nomination for Attorney General, he would be appointed by Caldwell to succeed Pool. We learn to day, that Pool has resigned and Albertson is appointed Judge in his stead.

Now it is understood that C. C. Pool will either be a candidate for the State Senate so as to work in the interest of Senator Pool next Winter, or receive some Federal appointment, or other lucrative position.

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR AND ATTORNEY GENERAL.

By reference to the proceedings of the Radical Convention, it will be seen that "Gen." Curtis H. Brogden has been nominated for Lieutenant Governor and Col. T. L. Hargrove for Attorney General.

Brogden is notoriously a man of weak intellect—infected with the cacotheca loquendi—is loud-mouthed, sappy-headed and vain. He has had a good deal of experience in Legislative life, but is totally incompetent for Lieutenant Governor.

Gov. Hargrove, although a bitter partisan, is a man of talent and ability, and we regret to see him in the wrong place. He fought gallantly through the war, but he has embraced Radicalism and—that is enough.

"Black spirits and white, Red spirits and gray; Mingle, mingle, mingle, Yea that mingle may."

The cauldron of the Radical office-holders and their dupes, the colored men, has been boiling here for two days, and such scenes of disorder, confusion and turbulence as have been witnessed in the Radical Convention would disgrace a bedlam.

The parliamentary skill of Phillips and the appeals of the sensible delegates were utterly powerless to evoke order out of chaos.

The Convention adjourned yesterday in a storm. It has been an uproarious body, and much bad feeling and dissatisfaction have been produced in the party on account of the violent course of the majority of the members.

HEAVY ENDORSEMENTS.

The Radical State Convention, in addition to the resolutions endorsing Grant and Caldwell, also endorsed Abolition's claim to the Senatorship and Gov. Holden's administration!

"Angels and ministers of grace, defend us! As one of their prominent members remarked, they had a heavy load to carry before, but with these endorsements their burdens would be intolerable.

The Chicago Post, after acknowledging that the Rev. Stuart Robinson, of Kentucky, was one of the first to send relief to the sufferers by the Chicago fire, and that he personally subscribed one thousand dollars to that end, apologizes for the item copied into its columns concerning him, and for which suit had been brought against it for libel. The item referred to charged Mr. Robinson with favoring the idea disseminating of contagion through the North during the civil war.

DIED.

OREN—Died, suddenly at his residence, near Warren, on 14th inst. Mr. THOMAS E. GUNN, almost 75 years old. It would be difficult to find a man who bore a more exalted character for truth, honesty and honor, for modesty and virtue, firmness and decision. His life was an illustration of piety and wisdom, rarely combined. He was a heartier man than a competency, he neither squandered it extravagantly, nor increased it by speculation or extortion. Of a fine, well balanced mind, embellished by increased by a most judiciously chosen education and admirably qualifying himself for position in public, his modesty eschewed all pretense, to enjoy the private life of a simple and unassuming citizen. He was moderate and regular in all things, rarely ever drank stimulants or ate excessively, and never was heard to utter vulgar or profane language. His hospitality was unostentatious and sincere and his friendship reliable.

On motion of J. H. Davis, a committee of fourteen on resolutions was appointed. The committee retired, and Messrs. Edwards, Amis and Littlejohn made short but entertaining speeches. The committee returned and their Chairman, Mr. Davis, presented the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1st. That we, ever mindful of our duty as good citizens to support and perpetuate the government, of the United States, do protest against the centralization policy of the party now in power.

2nd. That it is a great injustice to charge those who oppose the re-election of General Grant to the Presidency, with being disloyal to the government. This we regard only as a pretext for the abuse of power and an excuse for drifting into Imperialism. Every good citizen by his vote ought to rebuke such traitorous ambition and check the useless extravagance, corruption and frauds which under the present administration have found their way into almost every department of the government.

3rd. The refusal by Congress to admit the Hon. S. H. Rogers and Senators Vance and Ransom as members is a denial to American citizens of the right of representation.

4th. We denounce all violations of law whether it be by individuals singly or combined, openly or disguised, or by officials under color of their office.

5th. That our thanks are due to Col. L. C. Edwards and other Democratic and Conservative members of the General Assembly for their laborious and patient efforts to correct abuses and to legislate for the general welfare of the State.

6th. We approve of holding a Convention in Greensboro on the 1st of May, and relying with great confidence on the wisdom and patriotism of that body, we pledge a hearty support for the men, and measures which may be proposed.

7th. Resolved, That the Hon. Josiah Turner is entitled to the hearty thanks of every man, woman and child in North Carolina who loves free government and honest administration of the laws for the uncompromising war which he has waged, and is still waging against oppression and corruption.

8th. Whilst we pledge a hearty support to the nominee for Congress, we would express our preference for Jos. T. Littlejohn, Esq., as our candidate, and would most respectfully recommend him for the nomination for Congress from this District.

9th. That the Chairman appoint three delegates from each township to represent Granville in the State Convention at Greensboro on the 1st of May, and that a like number be appointed to attend the Convention to nominate a candidate for Congress whenever it may be called.

AN APRIL MAIDEN.

Were you ever heavy-hearted, little May?
She looked her pretty head, As right merrily she said,
"Heavy-hearted? No, not I; Yet a little makes me shy,
And a little less than half Makes me laugh—
My mother often calls me 'April Day.'"

Were you ever happy, little May?
She shook her head,
"I do not know," she said;
"Very happy? What is that?
Not a single soul, you know, Mother often tells me this,
With a kiss—
Our life, she says, is like an April day."

Plainness in Dress.
There is no better mark of a sensible and well regulated mind than the exhibition of good taste in the choice of dress.

Weak people in this, more than anything else, betray the natural silliness of their character, and give proof to the world of their unfitness to assume any of the important responsibilities of life. It is almost an impossibility for a sensible or a thoroughly educated man to be a fop; his nature rebels at the thought of gaudy or vulgar display; his eye shrinks from garish colors, and all his nicer feelings revolt at the idea of mere outward embellishment.

Simplicity and neatness in dress must, therefore, be evidence of good judgment and a well balanced understanding, just as gaudiness and foppishness are to be considered indications of mental weakness. This truth should be borne in mind by the young, particularly by those just starting out in life, for young people are very apt, unless guided in their tastes, to cultivate a love of dress at the risk, in the first place, of endangering their reputation for good sense, and secondly, of exposing themselves to the chances of good judgment and a well balanced understanding, just as gaudiness and foppishness are to be considered indications of mental weakness.

Of course, we must not be understood as recommending negligence, or even indifference, in the selection of dress, for we esteem cleanliness and neatness as two of the cardinal virtues; what we desire to inculcate is that simplicity and plainness, freedom from elaborate display and all vulgar ornament, are unerring marks of refinement and good common sense, and that they should be sedulously cultivated by every one who desires to secure a reputation for good taste and solidity of understanding.

SUPPOSE.—I believe that, to the young, suspense is the most intolerable suffering. Active misery always brings with it its own power of endurance. What a common expression it is to hear, "Well, I had known what I should go through before-hand." I should never have believed it possible that I could have done it. But it is a dreadful thing, to be left alone with your imagination, to have to fancy the worst, and yet not know what that worst may be; and this, in early youth, is a degree of acute anguish that after years cannot know. As we advance in life, we find all things here utterly worthless to grieve over them as we once could grieve; we grow cold and careless; the dust to which we are hastening, has entered into the heart.

BRIGHT HOURS AND GLOOMY.—Ah! this beautiful world. Indeed, I know not what to think of it. Sometimes it is all gladness and sunshine, and Heaven itself lies not far off. And then it changes suddenly, and is dark and powerful, and the clouds shut out the sky. In the lives of the saddest of us there are bright days like this, when we feel as if we could take the great world in our arms. Then comes the gloomy hours, when the fire will neither burn in our hearts nor on our hearts. Believe me, every heart has its secret sorrows, which the world knows not—Langfellow.

A countryman, strolling through New London recently, hand in hand with his rural Phyllis, impatient to visit the circus, exclaimed on seeing a bunch of bananas suspended in front of one of the fruit stores: "I'll be mowed if them are the biggest beans I ever seen, Phylphroy."

A young lady told her father a few days since that the doctors said good for cancer, and that she had the cancer in her mouth, and wanted a pair of handsome gold ear-rings! Her father probably thought such remedies would cause a collapse in his purse.

Hon. Montgomery Blair says he will support the nominee of the Cincinnati Convention.

Super-Phosphate of Lime.
Composed entirely of the Charleston Bone Phosphate, Sulphuric Acid and Ammonia. Warranted to analyse seven per cent. of Soluble Phosphoric Acid and one per cent. of Ammonia.

We are prepared to offer this reliable and superior Super-Phosphate—after a test of more than five years in the cotton growing States of North Carolina, Georgia and Alabama, where its record is second to none other manufactured—not excepting Peruvian Guano and Bone Ground Bone, having a better record for cotton than those— to Planters and Dealers in any quantity—at any railroad depot in the State, or at its factory, upon satisfactory terms.

Price per ton, delivered at any station on the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad, or at Henderson, or on the Wilmington and Weldon road north of Rocky Mount, for $50 cash.
Put up in bags—very stout—for immediate use—or in good barrels—which we recommend as better, owing to the high grade of the article as ordered. Circulars and testimonials furnished upon application. All orders and communications addressed to JOSEPH YARDLEY & SONS, General and Sole Agents for the State of N. Carolina and the lower counties of Va., mh1-1-1-1 Ridgeway, Warren co., N. C.

ATTENTION IS CALLED TO THE following city order:
"All persons are forbidden to build on the line of any of the old streets extended. The above is a true copy of the proceedings of the City Commissioners at their meeting held February 12, 1872."
